Nomination Packet

Governor Henry McMaster

Governor's Awards

The Governor of South Carolina may bestow upon an individual The Order of the Palmetto, The Order of the Silver Crescent, or The Certificate of Appreciation. These prestigious awards recognize those who have made significant contributions to the life and well-being of South Carolina and her people. Governor John C. West presented the first Order of the Palmetto in the summer of 1971. The Order of the Silver Crescent was established by Governor David Beasley in 1997 and modified in 1999 by Governor Jim Hodges. The Certificate of Appreciation was created under Governor Nikki R. Haley in 2011. While the usage of these awards has varied over the years, they have always been utilized to recognize outstanding achievements, service, and contributions to South Carolina.

Descriptions of Awards

The Order of the Palmetto is the state's highest civilian honor awarded to citizens of South Carolina for extraordinary lifetime achievement and for national or statewide service. The Order of the Palmetto is a once in a lifetime achievement.

The Order of the Silver Crescent is the state's highest award for significant contributions, leadership, volunteerism, and lifelong influence within a region or community. The Order of the Silver Crescent is a once in a lifetime achievement.

The Certificate of Appreciation is awarded to recognize an individual's outstanding achievement, commitment, act, or devotion within a community.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1: How many letters should be submitted with a nomination packet?

A: In addition to the two required letters, nominators are encouraged to submit other letters of recommendation from individuals that can attest to the nominee's character, activities, and his or her significant influence within a community, statewide, or nationally, so that the Governor's Awards Committee may have a better understanding of the nominee's accomplishments. All additional letters must be submitted with the complete nomination packet or they will not be considered.

Q2: How do I locate the nominee's corresponding United States Congressman, State Senator, or State Representative for a letter of recommendation?

A: To find Senators and Representatives for both the State Legislature and the United States Congress who are currently serving:

1. Visit www.governor.sc.gov;
2. Click on the Legislative Information tab;
3. Click on the Find your Legislator link; and
4. Enter the nominee's address.

Q3: The nominee has previously received one of the Governor's Awards; can I nominate the individual for a different award?

A: The Order of the Palmetto and the Order of the Silver Crescent are once-in-a-lifetime recognitions and previous recipients are not eligible to be nominated for the same award under a different administration. Previous recipients of The Order of the Silver Crescent or The Certificate of Appreciation are eligible to be nominated for a different Governor's Award. The previous honor should be included on the nominee's résumé. The nominator must highlight and expound in detail the extraordinary national or statewide service for an Order of the Palmetto nomination or the significant contributions, and volunteerism within a region or community for an Order of the Silver Crescent nomination that the nominee has performed since he or she was awarded The Order of the Silver Crescent or The Certificate of Appreciation.

Q4: Will the nominee or individuals who submit letters of recommendation be notified by the Governor's Office upon final decision?

A: No, the Governor's Office will only contact the single nominator who is listed on the Official Governor's Awards Nomination Form upon final decision.

Q5: Will the Governor's Office contact the media or create a press release if the nominee receives a Governor's Award?

A: No, the Governor's Office does not contact the media or create press releases for Governor's Awards recipients. Nominators are welcome to create press releases and announcements on behalf of the recipient.
